Program Folio April 18 - May 15 1966 Vol. 17, No .2

KPFA's program listings, in the form of this Folio, are published every four weeks as a service to subscribers who support our non-profit, non-commercial station at the yearly rate of $15.00 (student subscriptions, $10.00). All contributions are tax deductible.

On the air: Mon.-Fri., 7:00 a.m.-midnight; Sat. and Sun., 8:00 a.m.-midnight. Listeners in certain parts of the East Bay who have difficulty receiving KPFA clearly can hear all these programs on KPFB at 89.3 mc.

KPFA is owned by Pacifica Foundation, a non-profit institution. Other Pacifica stations are KPFK, Los Angeles 38, California, and WBAI, New York 16, New York. Subscriptions are transferable. The duration of programs scheduled is approximate. Dates after listings indicate past or future duplicate broadcasts; an indication of the time of such scheduling refers to a more detailed description of the program. An asterisk preceding a music listing means the performance is not commercially available.

PROFILE . . . Charles Shere

Believe it or not, this unlikely-looking fellow in the fancy shirt is entrusted with the KPFA music department, as well as the editing of the Folio. It's our Director of Gesamtkunstwerke, caught relaxing in a rare moment at the coffee house (he's usually up the street at the pool hall). He came to the station in August, 1964, fresh from a year off which had graciously been given him to while away writing music. Before that he had spent a year or so breaking up sidewalks for the City of Berkeley, and before that he had been a career postal clerk.

Although a likeable fellow, his friend refers to him as given to an almost arrogant sort of disinterest in other points of view than his own, which probably accounts for the narrow margin by which he was just elected Chairman of the KPFA unit of NABET. He was awarded an A.B. at the University of California at Berkeley around 1960, with a major in English. His musical education is generally self-taught.

Mr. Shere was born in Berkeley in 1935. In his spare time he would like to compose, paint, and devote some attention to his family: a most attractive and long-suffering wife, two daughters, and a son.

— C.S.

MARK YOUR FOLIO!

A number of our subscribers mark their Folio as soon as they receive it, to be sure of hearing the programs that interest them. Recently one of these listeners mailed us her copy, which she had marked while listening, as well as before. Such marginal comments as "ugh" and "great" were most illuminating to the staff here. We're not asking for too much truth, but a little feedback from the listener might help us serve you better. Herewith, therefore, a space for your memoranda, and if you'd like to mail it back to us, we'll promise to read it.

8:00 FROM THE CENTER: After "Pacem in Terris"—I: On the days following the dismal celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the United Nations, leading representatives of the U.N., most of whom had also participated in the Center's Convocation, reconvened at the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions in Santa Barbara. The Convocation has raised the questions that had to be asked to initiate a dialogue. This conference sought a practical program toward meeting those questions. Each of the participants spoke candidly in his private, not official capacity. They included Chief S. O. Adebo of Nigeria, Luis Quintanilla of Mexico, Patrick Armstrong of the United Nations. On this tape the speakers say that practical steps toward peace must include, among other things, the participation of Red China in talks and the formation of world-wide Watch Committees of citizens to press their governments to abolish war. (CSDI)

7:45 THE UNION AND TEACHING: Ben Rust has served the Teachers Union "in one capacity or another" since 1949. In order to devote more time to his studies and his teaching, he is not planning to run for union office again after he completes his term as President of Local 866, Contra Costa County. He tells Elsa Knight Thompson something of his philosophy of teaching and unionization.

8:30 THE SILVER KING: A melodrama by Henry Arthur Jones and Henry Herman adapted for radio
by Archie Campbell and Michell Raper with Donald Wolfit as Wilfred Denver. One of the greatest of the Victorian melodramas, The Silver King lacks nothing suggested by that description. First produced at the Princess' Theatre, London, on November 16, 1882, it enjoyed a revival at the Players'
Theatre in December, 1958. Nothing that could add excitement to the plot was omitted by the authors, who obviously knew what was expected of them
and relished the task. (BBC) (May 9)

HELP KPFK AND WBAI!

Like us, our sister stations in Los Angeles and New York are always on the quiet vive for subscribers. Their programming is similar to ours—in fact, there's a good deal of program exchange among us—and their financial structure is the same, too. If you listen to us, your friends probably want to listen to them. The addresses are in the italics of the inside front cover. Give your friends, and Pacifica, a hand.

1:00 VICTORIAN BOOKS with David Aitken.

1:30 BOOKS with Kenneth Rexroth. (May 11)

*2:00 THE ART OF FUGUE: Eric Vaughn has completed a sequential reorganization of this last work by J. S. Bach. The new sequence, which has been performed by Margaret Fabrizio on the harpsichord to great popular and critical success, presents the material in a new light. The sections are performed in the order of increasing complexity, resulting in a continually shifting effect of the music, which progresses from the expository early sections, through the intellectual contrapuntal treatment of the complex later fugues with stretti, to the profoundly emotional final sections, culminating in the unfinished triple fugue. In this program we hear, first, a lengthy description of the work and its new sequence, and then the recording by the Fine Arts Quartet and the New York Woodwind Quintet, which presents the instrumentation by Samuel Baron. The following is Mr. Vaughn's new sequence; numbers in parentheses refer to the sequence of the Gesellschafts edition.

*2:30 THE HISTORICAL MIGNON: Anthony Boucher presents a historical Columbia recording (ca. 1935) of excerpts from Thomas' "Mignon," filling out Columbia's omissions with other historical recordings. Besides cutting four significant arias, Columbia chose not to record the overture, but we'll find one somewhere to precede the opera, which will be described and summarized by Mr. Boucher. The cast in the Columbia excerpts:

|--|-----------------|
| Mignon   | Germaine Cernay |
| Phililine  | Lucienne Targin |
| Wilhelm  | Andre D'Arkor   |
| Lothario   | Demoulin        |
| Laerte   | Valere Mayor    |
| The chorus and orchestra of the Theatre de la Monnaie are conducted by Maurice Bastin. |                 |

4:00 VIRGIL THOMSON ON ERIK SATIE: The noted American composer delivers a witty lecture on the eccentric French one, illustrated by three short musical selections. Following the talk, Johanna Harris plays "Bureaucratia Sonatina," and (with Thomson) "Three Pieces in the Shape of a Pear." The program concludes with Mrs. Harris playing Satie's "Sports and Diversions," as Thomson reads his translations of the amusing poems which accompany each musical fragment. Recorded and mastered by Carlos Hagen. (KPFK)

5:30 ERIK SATIE'S "SOCRATE": Virgil Thomson introduces the problematical work, then performs it at the keyboard with soloists Maraquita Mell, soprano, and Larry Jarvis, tenor, who sing Mr. Thomson's translation of the Plato-Satie text. Both lecture and performance were recorded at UCLA. (KPFK)
